APPLICATION

CHARLES T. AND JUDITH A. TART STUDENT INCENTIVE AWARD FOR PARAPSYCHOLOGICAL RESEARCH

The Annual Charles T. and Judith A. Tart Incentive Award of $500, made possible through the generosity of Dr. and Mrs. Tart, is earmarked for undergraduate, graduate or post-graduate students who demonstrate a strong commitment to work within the field. Esteemed parapsychologist, Professor Charles T. Tart, received his very first grant in parapsychology from the Foundation while he was still an undergraduate at MIT and it is in gratitude for that grant that he has endowed this Award.

The Student Incentive Award is restricted to research proposals for projects that deal directly with some aspect of parapsychology. Acceptable projects may be bibliographic or historical, experimental, questionnaire-based or single-case studies, or field investigations.

The application form should be accompanied by two letters of reference, a one- to two-page description of the project that includes purpose, method, materials and duration of the project, and a 1-page budget. The successful applicant will be expected to submit a brief project report to the Foundation for its grant files upon completion of the project. The deadline for submission is October 15th. The winner will be notified on or around November 1st.
